

Guess the Historical Machine – Answer Key

↓ Answer

C. Bulldozer

Did You Know?

Early bulldozers evolved from crawler tractors fitted with blades in the 1920s and 1930s, revolutionizing earthmoving by allowing a single machine to push large amounts of material efficiently. Their influence can still be seen in modern dozers used for grading, land clearing, mining, and major infrastructure projects.