

✖ Torque vs. Speed Challenge - Answer

Question #1

Answer: ☒ Low gear

Why:

Lower gears multiply torque at the wheels, which is necessary to overcome gravity and load resistance. Speed is sacrificed for pulling power.

Question #2

Answer: ☒ High gear

Why:

Less torque is needed without load. Higher gear improves travel speed and fuel efficiency when resistance is low.